EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Commercial growth leader with 15+ years scaling B2B SaaS and technology businesses across APAC, North America, and EMEA. Track record of building full-funnel growth systems that connect sales, marketing, product, and partnerships into one commercial platform. Delivered 5x ARR growth at Ignition ($15M to ~$100M) and helped SiteMinder (ASX: SDR) scale from $15M to $100M+ ARR on its path to a $1B valuation and ASX listing. Operates at board and CEO level with strong commercial discipline around subscription growth, forecast predictability, and enterprise value creation.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- 5x subscription revenue growth at Ignition: ARR from $15M to ~$100M in under five years
- Helped SiteMinder (ASX: SDR) scale from $15M to $100M+ ARR through ASX listing and a $1B+ valuation
- Led full commercial scope at Genbook: sales, marketing, and partnerships contributing to acquisition by Booksy
- Built multi-motion GTM engine — PLG self-serve, sales-assisted (mid-market), and partner-led (SMB) — running in parallel
- Expanded U.S. market from near-zero to primary growth engine at Ignition; led GTM across 27+ countries at SiteMinder

EXPERIENCE

Ignition (Practice Ignition)

Jul 2021 – Jan 2026

Global VP Marketing / CMO (Advisor from Jan 2026)

Revenue engagement platform for accounting and professional services. Markets: U.S., Australia, UK, Canada.

- Led full GTM and marketing growth agenda as executive team member reporting directly to CEO, contributing to ARR growth from $15M to ~$100M in under five years
- Built and managed a 20+ person global team across demand generation, product marketing, brand, lifecycle, and revenue operations
- Architected multi-motion GTM: PLG self-serve, sales-assisted for mid-market, and partner-led distribution for SMB, running simultaneously with clear conversion logic across all three motions
- Built U.S. go-to-market from near-zero: localised content, ABM for mid-market accounting firms, BDR/SDR enablement, and U.S. channel partnerships, making the U.S. the primary growth market
- Partnered with product on pricing and packaging redesign to lift ARPU and net revenue retention (NRR)
- Led full company rebrand and category creation programme; repositioned from Practice Ignition to Ignition and built category recognition in the U.S. accounting market
- Embedded AI-first workflows across content production, campaign execution, and reporting, improving team velocity and output quality
- Presented to board and investors on pipeline, growth trajectory, and market expansion strategy

Booksy (acquired Genbook)

May 2019 – Jul 2021

VP Marketing

SMB scheduling and payments SaaS for beauty and wellness. 22,000+ customers. Dual market: U.S. and Australia.

- Owned the full commercial growth function — sales, marketing, and partnerships — across two markets
- Led GTM strategy and commercial execution across acquisition, activation, and retention, contributing to acquisition by Booksy (2021)
- Ran PLG and product-led sales (PLS) motions for 22,000+ SMB customers; built and diversified acquisition channels to reduce CAC and improve LTV
- Scaled multi-regional commercial operations across U.S. and Australia in parallel

SiteMinder (ASX: SDR)

Jun 2014 – May 2019

Global Product Marketing Director / Global Marketing Director, Demand Generation / Head of Marketing, Little Hotelier

Global hotel technology platform. ASX-listed (SDR). Reached $1B+ valuation.

- Joined as employee #84; contributed to SiteMinder's growth from ~$15M to $100M+ ARR through ASX listing and a $1B+ valuation
- Built the global demand generation engine from the ground up: marketing automation, SEO, paid, events, and partnerships, delivering triple-digit YoY pipeline growth
- Led commercial GTM across 27+ countries: multi-language, multi-motion execution across EMEA, North America, and APAC
- Built the global product marketing function from scratch: positioning, product launches, competitive intelligence, and sales enablement
- Reported directly to Founder/CEO in early tenure; operated at executive level throughout
